Job Description - Iowa House Caucus Director

Overview

The Iowa House Truman Fund Caucus Campaign is hiring a Caucus Director for the 2020 election cycle. This is a senior level position that will report directly to the House Democratic Leader and will oversee all aspects of the 2020 campaign. The Iowa House will be a national target in the 2020 cycle and the House Truman Fund is seeking a committed individual to lead House Democrats into the majority.

Qualifications

The Caucus Director will have at least three cycles of campaign experience and at least one cycle as the campaign manager for a targeted legislative race. Qualified applicants need to have demonstrated skills in managing staff at various levels of responsibility, managing multiple consultant teams, motivating people, developing and implementing strategic plans, managing budgets, evaluating paid communication, and working with elected officials. Strategic planning needs to include mission, campaign benchmarks, and clear objectives in the areas of field work, fundraising, budget and working with support team. Flexibility and creativity are key attributes for qualified applicants.

The candidate needs superb judgment, political savvy, field focus, fundraising prowess, and a work ethic of the highest degree. Prefer understanding of Iowa politics, elected officials, and major local political issues.

Management

The Caucus Director will be in charge of hiring campaign staff and consultants for the 2020 election cycle. These positions will cover an array of different responsibilities and the director will need to be knowledgeable in each area, including a large field operation. The director will be expected to understand what would make a successful employee in each position and assess each candidate's strengths and weaknesses. Responsibilities will also include day-to-day management of the staff and consultants, staff trainings, goal setting, and tracking.

Outreach and Recruitment:

The Caucus Director will be the primary contact for caucus outreach and candidate recruitment. Responsibilities will include developing and maintaining relationships with partners, consultants, party activists, donors, and other campaigns. The Director will also provide regular updates to leadership and the caucus. In addition to outreach responsibilities, the Caucus Director will work with the leadership team to develop and implement a candidate recruitment plan. The Caucus Director will also develop relevant trainings for candidates and members.
